

Alameda County Law Library Closed Due to COVID-19 – Effective Monday, March 16, 2020 – Email Service Available

March 17, 2020 -

In accordance with the Shelter in Place Order issued March 16, 2020, Alameda County Law Library will be CLOSED effective 4:00 pm March 16th through April 7th. The closure may be extended.

No in-person or telephone library services will be available during this time. Library staff will be monitoring the lawlib@acgov.org email address and can provide limited reference and document delivery service to anyone via email.

Library staff can email you specific documents/chapters from the Westlaw, Lexis Advance, and OnLaw databases and perform mediated searches and email you the results. We are unable to provide patrons with direct/individual access or login credentials for the databases.

Note that there may be a delay in response time as limited staff are working remotely.

Visit our website 24/7 at <http://lawlibrary.acgov.org> to access free legal websites, legal forms, and the Nolo Press eBooks database (login instructions provided on website).

The health and safety of our patrons and our community is our number one priority. We appreciate the understanding, patience, and support of the public and our community

Thank you for your patience,

Alameda County Law Library
