RESTRAINING ORDERS AND VIRTUAL COURT 101

Program Description

This panel presentation will feature attorneys from the Family Violence Law Center, which provides free legal services in any language to domestic violence and sexual assault survivors in Alameda County. The panel will provide a brief introduction to restraining orders with a specific focus on current virtual practices and court procedures.

Topics will include: an introduction to different types of restraining orders and the legal forms required; best practices when filling out restraining order forms; how to file, pick up, and serve restraining orders; and how to submit evidence and access remote hearings. Attendees will leave with a better understanding of the current Alameda County practices regarding restraining orders, increasing the odds of success in their cases.

Advance registration required: email your name to lawlib@acgov.org by noon the day before the program or sign up on Eventbrite to receive a link.
