BUSINES LAW BASICS -- LEGAL CONSIDERATIONS FOR NEWLY FORMING BUSINESSES

1 hour participatory MCLE Credit

No-cost, free event

Program Description

This one-hour presentation will offer newly forming businesses legal information about: choosing the right business entity, licensing and permits, forming contracts, employment law, intellectual property, funding sources, and general considerations and resources.

About the Speaker

Julie Gilgoff is a staff attorney at Legal Services for Entrepreneurs, a program of Lawyers' Committee for Civil Rights of the San Francisco Bay Area. In this capacity, she provides free legal services to low-income individuals who want to start or develop businesses in the San Francisco Bay Area. She has also worked at the Sustainable Economies Law Center, offering legal advice to local businesses at their Legal Cafes, and specializing in cooperative housing models.
