

Welcome to the future of legal intelligence.

State trial court data - accessible for the first time!
Trellis is a comprehensive AI-powered state court research and analytics platform built by litigators for litigators.

Trellis Sign-In: <https://trellis.law>

- Trellis database is available free of charge to Law Library patrons!
- Login to Trellis outside the library for anytime/anywhere access. Use from your home or office!
- Library cardholders can request the Trellis login and password from library staff. Email lawlib@acgov.org
- Once you have the login credentials, go to <https://trellis.law> and click “Login”
- Trellis is also available inside the Law Library on the library’s Legal Research Computers.
- Access Trellis from your laptop or device through the Law Library’s WiFi network- law_library_wifi
- Need Help? Email us at lawlib@acgov.org or read Trellis Support Materials
- Trellis is a state trial court legal research and analytics platform developed for litigators.
- Search across over 100 million trial court documents, including court filings, dockets, rulings, motions, and verdicts.
- Retrieve examples of complaints and motions filed in CA Superior Courts, including documents filed in Alameda County cases.
- Search by keyword, document type, case type, party name, attorney, expert, or judge.
- Search California verdicts and settlements by injury type or court.
- Judge Analytics: Read judge bios and see how judges rule on various types of motions and manage cases.
- Delivery options: Download documents in PDF format & save or print in library for .25/page.