

Virtual MCLE Event
Wednesday, March 8, 2023
12:00pm – 1:00pm

CALIFORNIA WAGE & HOUR 101

1 hour participatory MCLE credit
No-cost, free event

Program Description

Join us for a sweeping survey of California-specific wage and hour issues within employment law. With a focus on the substantive law, the webinar will cover the liability hotspots and key claims brought by employees across the economic spectrum. The discussion will focus on compensable time, meal and rest breaks, independent contractor status and exempt versus non-exempt status. The webinar will identify the types of monetary recovery ranging from back wages to civil penalties as well as the claims procedures. Participants should come out of the webinar with a sense of the key questions that claimants and employers must ask when faced with a potential wage and hour case.

About the Speaker

Xinying Valerian is the managing partner at Valerian Law, P.C. The firm represents plaintiffs in individual and class/representative actions in various forums, primarily in the employment field. Ms. Valerian has successfully represented workers in many industries, recovering millions of dollars and crafting settlements that meet individual and public interest goals. Recognized as a Super Lawyer by Super Lawyer's Northern California publications, Ms. Valerian regularly volunteers for continuing legal education seminars relating to wage and hour topics, class actions and complex employment litigation. Before private practice, Xinying worked at Bay Area Legal Aid and interned for Legal Aid At Work. She is active in the California Employment Lawyers Association and belongs to the Asian American Bar Association of the Greater Bay Area.

Advance registration required: register via Eventbrite by noon the day of the program to receive a link.