

Virtual and in-person MCLE Event
Wednesday, September 20, 2023
12:00pm – 1:00pm

HOMEOWNERSHIP PRESERVATION

1 hour participatory MCLE credit

No-cost, free event

Attend online via Zoom or show up in person! Advance registration required

Program Description

Learn about homeowner rights and options to prevent foreclosure.

This MCLE event will cover the topics of general homeownership preservation, foreclosure related issues, homeowners associations (HOAs), and property tax issues.

About the Speaker

Daniel Alper is a staff attorney at Housing and Economic Rights Advocates (HERA), focused primarily on issues around predatory lending and foreclosure prevention. He provides direct services to clients and also engages in impact litigation. Prior to working at HERA, Daniel was a law clerk at the Alameda County Public Defender's office and judicial extern in the Northern District of California. Daniel earned his JD from Golden Gate University School of Law, where he participated in the Environmental Justice Clinic and served as an editor on the Environmental Law Journal.

Daniel currently teaches Legal Methods and Legal Analysis as an adjunct professor in the Academic Achievement program at GGU School of Law.

Advance registration required: register via Eventbrite for online/Zoom access or in-person access by noon the day of the program to receive a Zoom link and event ticket. In-person address: Alameda County Law Library, 125 12th Street, Oakland, CA 94607