

Virtual MCLE Event
Wednesday, April 17, 2024
12:00pm – 1:00pm

LABOR & EMPLOYMENT RESEARCH ON BLOOMBERG LAW

1 hour participatory MCLE credit

No-cost, free event

Program Description

Bloomberg Law's search features integrated advanced technology across case law and dockets. It also includes analytics to gain insight into parties, judges, law firms and attorneys, locate judicial interpretation of laws and regulations, and keep current with legal developments throughout the world. This presentation will demonstrate the Labor and Employment Practice Center page in Bloomberg Law which includes Legal Analysis, Trackers and Practice Tools, News, Opinions, Dockets, Arbitration Awards, Laws & Regulations and Chart Builders, Agency Materials, and International materials. Topic-specific pages include Employment, Labor Arbitration, Labor Relations & Collective Bargaining, Government Employees, Occupational Safety, and International.

About the Speaker

Erik Jensen ESQ, Bloomberg Law

Erik Jensen is a Client Service Partner with Bloomberg Law with a specific focus on Federal Circuit Courts and West Coast law firms. Prior to working for Bloomberg Law, he spent five years litigating as a Public Defender in Seattle, WA, defending and representing indigent clients charged with misdemeanors and felonies through all stages of trial. He graduated from the University of Utah with a degree in Philosophy Cum Laude, has a French degree from Universite de Paul Valery in France and a law degree from University of Utah, College of Law.

He is licensed and a member of the California, Washington, and Utah state bars associations and an honor society member of Phi Beta Kappa.

Advance registration required: register via Eventbrite by noon the day of the program to receive a link.