

Virtual Event
Thursday, February 27, 2025
12:00pm – 1:00pm

DEALING WITH DEBT: LEGAL RIGHTS AND OPTIONS

No-cost, free event

No MCLE credit available

Program Description

Learn about the different types of debt, how to assert your rights when dealing with debt collectors, and what to do if you have been sued.

About the Speaker

Nisha Ajmani is a staff attorney at HERA. She focuses her work on tenant advocacy, including helping tenants resolve issues related to credit reporting, debt collection, housing discrimination, habitability, and landlord disputes.

Prior to joining HERA, Nisha was a Housing Staff Attorney at Family Violence Law Center, in Oakland, where she advocated on behalf of domestic violence survivors who were dealing with housing legal issues. Her work there included in-court representation of survivors in obtaining restraining and move-out orders and defending against evictions. Nisha has also spent a substantial portion of her legal career advocating on behalf of system-involved youth.

Nisha was a summer legal intern at HERA in 2011 and a post-graduate attorney fellow at HERA in 2013. Nisha earned her J.D. in 2012 from the University of Oregon School of Law, where she was a Managing Editor on the Oregon Law Review. Nisha was born and raised in the Bay Area and earned her B.A. from Bowdoin College in 2006. She enjoys painting in her free time.

Advance registration required: register via Humanitix by noon the day of the program to receive a link.